

Joseph E. Smith, Jr

Occupation:

United States Army

Education:

Bachelor of Arts-International Studies August 2018

Minor: Arabic

Experience:

Voice of the Cav (June 2020 – January 2021)

- Served as the official narrator for high-profile military events, delivering compelling and authoritative voiceovers.
- Provided both scripted and live narration, ensuring seamless transitions and engagement with audiences.
- Enhanced event professionalism and historical significance through vocal storytelling and precision.

Voice of the Corps (November 2023 – April 2024)

- Selected as the official voice of the Corps, narrating major military functions and public-facing events.
- Collaborated with leadership to refine scripts, ensuring clarity and resonance with diverse audiences.
- Recognized for precision, emotional depth, and command presence in voice delivery.

Video Voice Over for Military Base Renaming (February 2024 – March 2024)

- Competed and was selected to narrate (scripted video) the historic renaming of Fort Hood to Fort Cavazos.
- Delivered impactful narration for a widely viewed transition video, enhancing historical recognition through voice-over work.
- Narrated over 50 military ceremonies, ensuring consistency and professionalism in high-stakes events.
- Provided voice-over for a video viewed by over 5,000 Soldiers processing daily under III Armored Corps.
- Applied key skills, including vocal modulation, script adaptation, and audience engagement, to create a memorable and effective presentation.